This music goes to the heart because it comes from the heart.

Bapi Das Baul @ Bauls of Bengal

In a musical milieu that values tradition he is a bit of loose cannon, a maverick, a highly individual performer with a strong sense of self worth. I've never heard anyone outside the black music idiom perform a cappella field hollers with such power and commitment.

Mark Deherly @ Rhythms

Earthy blues, performed with a throaty voice, driven by powerful guitars. Breathless a cappella field hollers.

Ingolf Boysen @ Glitterhouse (Germany)

Inspiring and addictive. Gary Joyner @ Acoustic Guitar (USA)

A mysterious prophet and seer preaching his gospel.

Tom Keller @ Folk World (Germany)

A voice full of conviction moving mountains carried by spearing acoustic rhythms. Total engagement and a rich musical vocabulary.

Jerome Travers @ Le Docteur Blues (France)

Music for people who believe.

Sylvester Fox @ Groove

A musical shaman channeling the spirits that fuel the fire in his soul setting them free.

Janvier Mussen @ Cornstalk

One of Australia's greatest musical visionaries.

Vicente Zumel @ La Hora del Blues (Spain)

Words that speak of the spirit. This is as real as it gets. Uncompromising in his artistic integrity. One of the few artists brave enough to stand naked and imperfect within an industry that encourages conformity and compliance.

Phil Bennet @ Nova
